

INGRID TOOGOOD

Ingrid Toogoods' practice focuses on painting as a medium and the transition between the flat, two-dimensional painting and the spatial painting. In addition to painting, photography and installation, her practice also include performance. The mirror and the shadow are two essential elements in her works. Both represent unstable, temporary forms of reality and offer a way of manipulating perceptions of space in two and three dimensions.

Ingrid Toogood lives and works in Stavanger. She holds an MA at The National College of Art and Design in Oslo (2002). Her most recent exhibitions includes "I mourned for it" (2019), LNM, Oslo, "With Eyes Closed (self-portrait)" (2017), Hermetikken, Stavanger, "How to Make A Garden? Frida Hansen and contemporary art" (2015), Stavanger kunstmuseum, "You Are Beautiful. You Are Alone" (2015), Kristiansand kunsthall, "Memories From A Garden" (2015), performance at Kunsthall Stavanger, "Evening Falls Flat" (2013), SOFT galleri, Oslo. Toogood's work features in the collections at the Stavanger Art Museum, The University of Oslo, St. Olavs Hospital in Trondheim and Statoil.
